

Life ring from Daybreak

Identifier: 1703

Title: Life ring from Daybreak

Type: Object

Subject: Recreation, Sailing

Description: Horse-shoe life ring from Daybreak, a Hinckley sailboat owned by Harry R. Madeira, and sailed out of Northeast Harbor. The boat's name "Daybreak" is painted on the front in gold paint, and the Madeira signal flag and Northeast Harbor Fleet burgee appear below.

On the edge of the buoy is a stamped label with the brand "Horseshoe Jim-Buoy", and other illegible information.

The back is unadorned

Named Person: Madeira - Harry R. Madeira

Date: 1970 c.

Rights: Copyright Not Evaluated

Accession #: 2022.03.01

Please Credit Source: Please credit "Great Harbor Maritime Museum, Northeast Harbor, Maine" if used.